Eucharistic Adoration

“Behold this Heart which has loved men so much, and yet men do not want to love ME in return. Through you My divine Heart wishes to spread its love everywhere on earth.”

~Jesus to Saint Margaret

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Adoration is one way to “love (Jesus) in return” for His love and sacrifice for us, as well as to spread His love.

We are in need of people willing to commit to spending one hour of time with our Eucharistic Lord on First Fridays during Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Know that God will bless this surrender of your time to Him immensely.

Hours most in need: First Friday: 11:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m., 5:00 p.m. and Saturday at 1:00 a.m. We are also in need of subs. Call/text 989-292-2072 if you are interested or have any questions.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

Glad to Sad and Everything In-between

Those who've been around for a few years will recognize these lyrics:

*I've been up and down and over and
out*

And I know one thing

Each time I find myself

Flat on my face

I pick myself up and get

Back in the race

The lyrics, of course, are from one of singer Frank Sinatra's most famous songs entitled "That's Life." It came to mind today as I was listening to The Catholic Channel on Sirius XM
radio this morning. Each Monday, the morning host Gus Lloyd does a segment entitled "Tell Me Something Good." Its purpose is in its title and I suppose its placement on Mondays
is to contrast the "downs" some people feel in going back to work after having a day or two off on the weekend.

Some Mondays I will listen to several callers to the show who are happy to have recovered from an illness, or who are proud of new graduate. In the weeks after Easter, there are usually a few people calling about the joy of someone who just came into the church at the Easter Vigil.
But other Mondays I will listen to a couple calls, then decide I'd rather listen to music that day. It's just my mood on those days, that make the difference. But, that's life.

The broadcast I was listening to was pre-recorded, so I couldn't have called into the show if I wanted. Otherwise, I could have told the audience that I officiated a wedding over the weekend. And in my homily I noted to the bride and groom that as enjoyable as that day was, the reality is that there will be many up and down days in their married life.
There will be times when they will feel like they have, in Sinatra's words, fallen flat on their faces via job loss, severe sickness, loss of a loved one and so on. That's the time to remember that Jesus is part of this marriage and will help them to get up and "get back in the race"

because that's what Jesus does.

By the time this is read, I will have officiated at a committal service at Mt. Rest Cemetery. A husband and wife were buried, having been through the "up and down and over and outs," of life on earth. Their races were over and our prayers were for the repose of their souls. As farmers they had to trust in the Lord,
now their souls are entrusted to the Lord.

In-between the wedding and the committal I baptized two children. In looking back, I can see that this week was a snapshot of life, bringing two children into the church, officiating as two adults entered a new life chapter and saying "Good bye" to two longtime parishioners as their final chapter was written. "Amen,
and God bless to all." (I almost forgot to give a shout out to Dads -- let's be family faith leaders.)

Special guest speaker Author and former Administrative Law Judge, Lisa K. Gigliotti, has a powerful message about The Courage to Honor the End of Life; a message even more critical now that bills to legalize assisted suicide in Michigan have been introduced. For more than twenty-five years Lisa has lived with severe rheumatoid arthritis and myasthenia gravis. Through fourteen major surgeries and recurrent use of a wheelchair, Lisa has maintained a fulfilling and positive life. She has achieved successful careers as an administrative law judge, a policy advisor for the Michigan senate and governor, a Bioethics law professor, and an advocate for people with disabilities and for improving end-of-life care. In pursuit of encouraging others, Lisa has written four books that describe her Italian-American upbringing and how Coraggio-courage-is the key to positively overcoming adversity.

DRAW NEAR EUCCHARISTIC MISSION

Thank you to everyone who helped make last week's parish mission a fruitful experience!

Sunday:

We truly receive Jesus - Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in Holy Communion. Become what you receive!

Monday:

"As you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes." We should examine ourselves before receiving our Lord in the Eucharist: we are receiving God.

Tuesday:

Fr. Bonk told us the parable of the Farmer, who could only spare two grains of wheat for the King. In return, the Farmer was given two gold coins, which made an enormous difference in his life. Jesus asks us to give Him all that we have, and in exchange He gives us all that He is. Draw near to Him, and trust that He is never outdone in generosity.

Thank you, Lord, for this opportunity to grow in our love of You together with our parish family.

Questions of Discernment

Discernment is when we try to figure out God's will when we have to make decisions in our life. Those can be big decisions like vocations to marriage, holy orders, or consecrated life. It can be career decisions, who to approach people with whom we agree, how to decide between two good things when we cannot do both. Discernment separates what is important or true from things that are not important or true.

What does God want?
What do I really want (be honest with yourself)?

Am I concerned with the truth of what is (what God created)?
Or am I worried about how things appear?

When I listen to people for advice in making decisions, are these people who are prayerful and thoughtful: capable of independent reflection and prayer? Or are they people who generally agree with me? Are they speaking God's word, the Devil's, or their own? Are they simply repeating what they hear in the media or read online?

Of the options available to me, which will help me get to heaven?

Who benefits by the choices before me? Does God benefit?
Or does the Devil benefit? Does a choice benefit me, and only me?

A Couple Final Thoughts

We have our gift of reason; we should rely on that in discernment.

A big part of discernment is that, when we are doing the will of God, no matter how stressful, chaotic, or painful the situation, there is a sense of peace. When there is time, make the decision and live with it for a while before acting; if a sense of peace doesn't settle in, keep discerning.

If you are struggling to discern a decision, feel free to contact us clergy (through the parish office) to set up an appointment.

~from Deacon Jerry's June 9, 2024 homily

Helping Neighbors in Need

Four Wheels at a Time

St. Vincent DePaul Society (Diocese Lansing) is expanding its Car Ministry to include donated vehicles! In the first two years of this ministry, we have assisted 37 Neighbors into automobiles. This form of transportation affords them access to the workplace, grocery store, medical care, school and much more. This effort has gone a long way to helping those neighbors out of the Systemic Poverty that lack of mobility can perpetuate.

We want to do more
We need your help!

When a NIN (Neighbor In Need) is identified, a home visit by two Vincentians is made to discuss their vehicle challenges as well as verify that they will be able to afford insurance, gas and the upkeep that comes with owning a car. Additionally, a payment of $1,000 is required from the NIN to cover the cost of the safety inspection and repair of the donated vehicle.

We have many NIN looking for a vehicle.
 If you can help, please call us at 517 484.5395 ext. 102.
 Please leave a message and one of our Vincentians will get back to you and explain how easy it is to donate a vehicle.

Upon donating a car, appropriate tax documents will be provided.

Lansing and need the Anointing of the Sick?

When you or your loved one is ill, receiving the Sacrament of the Sick is important. When in a Lansing area hospital, please let your attending nurse know you would like the Anointing of the Sick. They will contact the chaplain who will, in turn, contact a local priest who is "on call" to come and give you the sacrament. This is the quickest way for you or your loved one to receive the sacrament, if they didn't already receive it before going into the hospital.
