The Divine Mercy Chaplet June 29, 2024 after the 5:00 p.m. Mass

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is an intercessory prayer that asks the Lord to send His mercy upon us and upon everyone living in the world. It is prayed using the rosary and takes ten minutes to pray. The chaplet is traditionally said during the hour of mercy, the 3:00 pm hour. According to the Diary of St. Faustina, Jesus promised that all who recite this chaplet at the hour of death or in the presence of the dying will receive great mercy. The Vatican has approved Jesus' promises to St. Faustina regarding the Chaplet, Divine Mercy Sunday & the Divine Mercy picture. You may want to research the many promises of mercy that Jesus made to St. Faustina. The chaplet is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist so it is especially appropriate to pray it after receiving the Eucharist at Mass.

Please join the Path of Divine Mercy Grief Ministry after the last Saturday Mass each month when the Divine Mercy Chaplet is said for the parishioners who died during the month. This month it will be prayed after the 5:00 p.m. Mass on June 29.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

All We Want is Basic Human Dignity

If we think of the term "basic human dignity," our answers are quite likely to be similar. But a Catholic definition is different than a generic definition, or a medical definition. As a matter of fact, I could probably fill up this space with definitions of human dignity from a variety of angles. But it wouldn't change the minds of those who have their own personal definitions.

Catholic bishops in the United States tackled this issue in "Life and Dignity of the Human Person." The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. Pope Francis tackled the topic in a 2020 book, saying:*

"The dignity of others is to be respected in all circumstances, "not because that dignity is something we have invented or imagined, but because human beings possess an intrinsic worth superior to that of material objects and contingent situations.

Later on he writes:

"human beings have the same inviolable dignity in every age of history and no one can consider himself or herself authorized by particular situations to deny this conviction or to act against it." (*On Fraternity and Social Friendship)

I saw two films recently that dealt with the Nazis' total disregard for human dignity in their WWII persecution of the Jews in Europe, which falls under the banner of the Holocaust. I would hope that all who read this see the Holocaust as a gross disrespect for human dignity. The movies were quite different in eras and intent -- one was set in 1943 Denmark and the other 1991 Poland. One was the story of saving Jewish lives by helping them escape to neutral Sweden and the other was a woman's search to learn about her family's roots amid WWII events in Poland. Each in its own way, met the Church's standard for respecting human dignity.

There have been many books written and movies made about how many non-Jews hid Jewish families to protect them from the Nazis and/or helped them escape -- risking their lives in doing so. But until watching "Miracle at Midnight," a 1998-made-for-TV movie, I had never heard of the great escape of 7200 Jews from Denmark to Sweden via fishing boats. Only 500 Jews failed to make it out of Copenhagen, and of that group, 250 survived. The newly-released "Treasure" is harder to summarize, but in chilling scenes of the Auschwitz concentration camp we are reminded of what happens when society fails to stand up to evil and lets it trample human dignity.

All human dignity issues are not as cut and dried as the Holocaust. Such is the situation and upcoming debate in the Michigan legislature on assisted suicide. It will show some of us on opposing sides of this issue. Through this debate, remember the Church's stand defined by Catholic bishops and Pope Francis earlier in this piece.

Why is it so important to register in a parish?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times young adults who have moved away for years or are still living with their parents think they are still signed up under their parent's registration. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of your parish. We encourage and invite all adult members of our faith community (18 years or older) to register. Registration shows you belong. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptisms, weddings, and when asked to be a Godparent for Baptism or sponsor for Confirmation. To register in our parish either stop by the Parish Office or go on our website www.stjoecatholic.com and find our registration form on "Forms". You can either drop off your form in the collection basket at Mass, drop off in the Parish office or email to: stjosephchurchstjohns@gmail.com
