WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric’s mind)

The Testifier

Summer is filled with joy, but there is a bit of a downside to it from a liturgical perspective. In the hustle and bustle that comes with summer and all our activities, it’s easy to miss some noteworthy feasts and solemnities on the church calendar. The feast of St. Thomas More (one of my favorite saints) and his fellow Englishman St. John Fisher’s feast slipped by this past weekend and the solemnity of the birth of the great St. John the Baptist is celebrated today (6-24).

Though Thomas More and John Fisher’s stories are fresh in my mind due to their prominence in a book I am reading (“Heroes and Heretics of the Reformation”), it’s important that we stop and ponder the importance of John the Baptist in Church history. It would be a foolish endeavor on my part to try to rank the saints based on their importance -- just look at what trying to pull rank did for the apostles James and John. But let’s just take Jesus’ word on where he places the Baptist, as he states in Matthew 11:11: “among those born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptist!” Nuff said.

The “Magnificat” monthly prayer book has a wonderful reflection from St. Bede on the Baptizer today, pointing out that his solemnity date (exactly six months before Christmas Eve) is at a time of the year just past the summer solstice when the hours of daily sunlight are starting to diminish. When Jesus is born, it is just the opposite. He is born shortly after the winter solstice at a time when the hours of daylight are slowly increasing. This realization is manifest on the ministerial trail when in John 3:30 he says: “He must increase and I must decrease.”

We know from the get-go that John the Baptist’s purpose would be to point the way to Jesus “the light.” In the opening verses of Mark’s gospel, the evangelist quotes the Baptist as saying: “One mightier than I is coming after me.” (Mk 1:7) In the first chapter of Luke, the angel Gabriel told Zechariah that his wife Elizabeth would bear a son who will be “filled with the Holy Spirit from his mother’s womb, and he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord our God. He will go before him in the spirit of Elijah...to prepare a people fit for the Lord.” (Lk 1:15-17) Matthew identifies John the Baptist as the one who would prepare the way for the Lord and the Evangelist John says that the Baptist “was not the light, but (who) came to testify to the light.” (Jn 1:9) This light was the “light of the human race.” (Jn 1:3)

Though the length of days is diminishing by a minute or two each day, our summer days are still quite lengthy with about 15 hours of sunlight a day. Unfortunately, in all of our fun golfing, fishing, boating, swimming and such during these long days, some of us fall victim to substituting the light of the sun, for the light of the Son, and disregarding our Sunday Mass obligation. Let us follow John the Baptist and maintain our commitment to the Light.

Deacon Eric

Traveling Chalice for Vocations

If you love the Catholic faith and want to contribute in a meaningful way, please pray for vocations.

The chalice, as well as suggested prayers, are yours for that week.

We pray

that we might have the courage to be good servants of God and our country.

that all religious minorities may be freed from persecution.

that Catholic organizations build bridges of understanding between different faith communities.

for all those involved in adoptions and foster care.

that religious symbols are not banned from public places.
