WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

Now That's What I Call a Congress

What do we think of when we hear the word "Congress?" Well most of us think of a group of people in Washington D.C. who make national laws -- the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives. The rest of us probably don't want to take the time to even have a reaction to Congress. After all, the image of Congress in our country is about as low as it has ever been with most polls of "least popular" professions rotating a bottom three of news reporters, lawyers and politicians. Fortunately, Catholics last week held a Congress of which we can all be proud.

The 10th National Eucharistic Congress took place in Indianapolis last week and presented a great Catholic sharing of faith, with the focus on the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. More than 50 thousand people packed Lucas Oil Stadium, (home of the NFL football team Indianapolis Colts) night after night for inspiring talk, Christian music and Eucharistic Adoration. If you've ever heard the term "the silence was deafening" but didn't know what it meant, that term was never more appropriate than it was in that stadium each night of the event. It would go from a roaring sing-along from a performer such as Matt Maher to dead silence ten minutes later during a Eucharistic Procession and Exposition. I dare say that never did the silence of 50 thousand people make so much noise.

There was one notable exception on Saturday night, in the final Exposition period of the event. A child of perhaps two years old became fussy. Not loudly crying, but the child's voice penetrated the silence. My first thought was not of annoyance. Instead I immediately thought of Mark 10:13-15, when Jesus rebuked the apostles for keeping a group of children trying to get close to him. Jesus responded thusly: "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child, will not enter it." In my mind, the child saw an opening while all the adults were quiet to "come to the Lord". The whole purpose of this five-day event was for all of us, whether in attendance or not, to "come to the Lord" in the Real Presence of Jesus --body, blood, soul and divinity.

I watched as much as I could of the Eucharistic Congress on EWTN, though there was much I missed as each day featured breakout sessions that allowed attendees to hear speakers on individual topics relevant to today's church. All of the action was not behind closed doors, however, with a Saturday afternoon Eucharistic Procession through the streets of downtown Indianapolis from the football stadium to the Indiana World Wars I and II Memorial. Tens of thousands of people took part in the procession that was highlighted by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament high above the streets of the city. The symbolism was powerful. At the memorial of all the fallen soldiers from the state who sacrificed their lives to protect our freedom as U.S. citizens, sat the stunning vision of Jesus in the Eucharist, who sacrificed himself to set us free from death and opened the gates of heaven for all who believe.

This column was supposed to include quotes from the many great speakers at the Congress such as Bishop Robert Barron, Fr. Michael Schmitz and Jonathan Roumie, but I ran myself out of space. But I do want to get one more point across: to anyone who attended the Congress, please contact me, I need to know more.

Traveling Chalice for Vocations

If you love the Catholic faith and want to contribute in a meaningful way, please pray for vocations. The Knights of Columbus has provided a traveling chalice that you can take home for a week of daily prayers. The chalice is located on a table in the front of the annex. Simply sign up for the week that you want and the chalice, as well as suggested prayers, are yours for that week.

God and Gracious God,

We thank You for this gift of summer; of being able to pause, relax and enjoy the abundant gifts You have given us.

At this time of year, our thoughts may turn to vacations and outings. We may experience seashores, mountains or lakesides. We may enjoy fishing, swimming and barbecues.

But whatever our summer opportunities, we realize they are ultimately gifts from You and these gifts, Lord, are ultimately meant to be shared.

Show us the joys of generosity, keep us mindful of others and open our hearts to our parish, neighborhood and world. They need the generous spirit of good stewards.

As we enjoy the leisure that summer brings, we thank You for Your many gifts, and ask that You make us a gift to others as well.

In Jesus name we pray.

Amen

Remembering the Parish

After providing for families and loved ones, you may wish to include St. Joseph Parish in your will. All gifts are welcome, and we ask that you prayerfully consider whether a portion of your estate should be used to continue the ministries of the parish. This can be accomplished with the words: I bequeath to St. Joseph Parish of St. Johns, Michigan, [insert amount being given or percentage of residue] to be used to support the ministry of the parish. A bequest can be a specific dollar amount, a specific piece of property, a percentage of an estate, or all or part of the residue of an estate. It is always recommended that you consult a lawyer for drafting or amending a will.

“What does it matter where we go?
Wherever we go, won't we be serving
God there?
And wherever we go,
won't we have
Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament
with us?
Isn't that enough to make us happy?”

Do not pray for easy lives;
pray to be stronger people.
Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers;
pray for powers equal to your tasks.

Parents Seeking Sacraments for Children:

If you are seeking a sacrament for yourself or your child, please make sure you are first an active participating member of the parish. That means that you are formally registered and participating in the life of the parish, especially participating in community worship through weekly attendance at Weekend Masses. When you are here for Mass, it is important that you place your contribution envelope in the collection, even if it is empty. There is no way I can possibly know how often, or even if a person is attending Mass otherwise. Extra envelopes will be available in the back of church in case you forgot to bring yours with you. So, please use your envelopes by placing them in the collection each time you come to Mass. This will allow me to verify a person's Mass attendance quickly and easily when they present themselves (or their children) for Baptism, First Eucharist, Confirmation, Godparents and Confirmation sponsors, or Marriage. When it comes to this policy you should know, multiple envelopes put in at a weekend Mass will be considered participation for that one Mass. Additionally, envelopes dropped off or mailed into the parish will not be considered participation at Mass. Thank you in advance for your cooperation on this matter.

Blessings ~ Fr. Mike
