WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric’s mind)

What’s the buzz, tell me what’s a happening?”

Recognize that song lyric in the title? I’ll give you a clue. It has to do with Jesus, as a buzz was beginning to be heard about his ministry from Capernaum to Jerusalem. Still don’t have it? Keep reading. (Even if you got it, please keep reading.)

The song came to mind as I started to look at what is going to be happening at St. Joe’s in the next couple months, which got me thinking about what has already been happening at St. Joe’s. The buzz in the title referred to what was happening as Jesus walked this earth and where he was headed. Now I realize there is a buzz building at St. Joe’s. It’s not that Jesus is coming, it’s that he is here and we have been finding different ways to experience him and learn more about him and our faith.

Let me run through a quick list of all the faith-based education offerings at St. Joe’s since 2022: The Search (a nice-sized group of parishioners attended in 2022, only those interested in RCIA participated last year), Exhibition of Eucharistic Miracles, The Screwtape Letters-summer book club, Presence study, Face to Face with History Talk, Draw Near Mission, Question & Answer Day. In addition, we’ve had special healing services, several bible studies and the Average Joes.

What we are trying to do at St. Joe’s is to continue to provide the staples of a good Catholic parish -- daily and Sunday Masses, regular confession, preparation for all the sacraments and an elementary school. In addition, we are trying to offer faith formation to adults through different vehicles because an educated parish is a strong thriving parish. We especially want to reach those not drawn to something like a traditional bible study, hence last spring we had Catholic history teacher and author Phillip Campbell for the Face to Face with History presentation.

A group of about 80 parishioners attended and asked for more, so we are bringing Phillip back for another talk in October and were holding it on a Saturday night in the hopes that young parents can get a sitter for the kids and come for this unique event. The week before that, our St. Monica’s Auxiliary will sponsor another opportunity for parishioners to gather together -- this time not for education but for fun, with a night of improv under the banner of “Clean Comedy.”

In October, we will finally get back to our group viewing and discussion of the very popular TV series The Chosen. Though season four was in the theaters last winter and is available to streaming services, people who saw it want to talk about it in a large group setting. Then, hopefully, we can do series five during Lent. And speaking of Lent, we’re also working to bring a dynamic speaker for a Lenten mission.

To facilitate more faith formation opportunities and reach adults of all ages, we will be forming a team of six-to-ten parishioners to gain insight on other learning experiences we can offer down the line. More is coming on that in September, but start praying now that creative parishioners step forward to fill those roles. In the future we want people to say: “What’s the buzz?” (from Jesus Christ Superstar) “tell me what’s a happening” at St. Joe’s. Be the buzz.

The Continuing Legacy of the Reformation in the United States

As Catholics living in a historically Protestant country, it can be challenging to find our way.

In this talk, Catholic history author Phillip Campbell unpacks how the Reformation has shaped the development of the United States and its institutions—and continues to do so to this day. The lecture will illustrate how American attitudes towards culture, religion, law, and political power all bear the unmistakable fingerprints of Reformation ideology, with the aim of helping Catholics to get outside of the assumptions bequeathed to us by our Protestant founding so we can better evaluate the ideas we encounter in American society.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is an intercessory prayer that asks the Lord to send His mercy upon us and upon everyone living in the world. It is prayed using the rosary and takes ten minutes to pray. The chaplet is traditionally said during the hour of mercy, the 3:00 pm hour. According to the Diary of St. Faustina, Jesus promised that all who recite this chaplet at the hour of death or in the presence of the dying will receive great mercy. The Vatican has approved Jesus' promises to St. Faustina regarding the Chaplet, Divine Mercy Sunday; the Divine Mercy picture. You may want to research the many promises of mercy that Jesus made to St. Faustina. The chaplet is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist so it is especially appropriate to pray it after receiving the Eucharist at Mass.

Please join the Path of Divine Mercy Grief Ministry after the last Saturday Mass each month when the Divine Mercy Chaplet is said for the parishioners who died during the month. This month it will be prayed after mass on August 31.
