WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric’s mind)

Joe in Black

Be in the moment when in prayer or at Mass. It seems obvious, but can sometimes be a challenge. When I heard Fr. Joe Krupp on his podcast “Joe in Black” recently talk about his troubles with focus in prayer, I breathed a sigh of relief because it is also such a battle for me. Fr. Joe says that when his thoughts start to wander he quickly says “Come Holy Spirit Come” which serves to redirect him back to his prayer.

So I put his method to the test while saying my rosary last night. I have to admit that I was a bit disappointed in how many times I had to silently say “Come Holy Spirit Come.” I didn’t count them, of course, because that would require diverting myself from prayer to tally up my wanderings and defeat the purpose of trying to stay focused. By making myself conscious that I do need to concentrate more in prayer, I believe that the latter decades of last night’s rosary were better than the opening two decades. Since we were saying the rosary outside, I fell victim to watching clouds or birds the first two decades. When I looked at my beads or closed my eyes, I stayed on target.

In a similar vein, I read a question on “The Loop,” a Catholic daily news feed. The question was whether prayer before the tabernacle was less fruitful than prayer during Eucharistic Adoration, when the monstrance with Jesus sits on the altar. The answer is that there is no difference. Jesus hears us no matter when or where we pray. But many Catholics report that they stay more focused when they pray during exposition of the Eucharist. So in contrast to my wandering during the rosary last night when what I saw led my mind astray, when the visual is Jesus the focus is often heightened. So I guess the bottom line today is also today’s top line: be in the moment when in prayer or at Mass.

Final word on last week’s “Words” column: Have you ever told a joke and no one laughed because in the end, it just wasn’t funny? I recently came across a segment of “Seinfeld” whereby Jerry falls asleep on his couch while watching a science fiction movie. He wakes up, turns the TV off and goes to bed. In the middle of the night he wakes with a start, jots down a note, laughs and falls back asleep. In the morning, he looks at the note and can’t decipher his own writing. He remembers only that he thought it would make a great joke. Everyone to whom he shows it, gives him a different answer as to what it says. Then one day he is visiting a friend in the hospital and the same science fiction movie is playing and he again hears this mysterious, yet hilarious line: “flaming globes of Zigmund.” Now depressed, Jerry says to all who would listen: it’s not funny, this punchline I’ve been chasing for weeks ‘flaming globes of Zigmund,’ it’s not funny.”

It goes to show that sometimes words and punchlines aren’t nearly as poor as one’s penmanship.

Practice your cursive Jerry!

Holy Hours of Adoration and Reparation
Saturday, August 24, 2024
2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and after Mass until 7:00 p.m.

The month of August is traditionally dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. In honor of this devotion, St. Joseph Parish is hosting Holy Hours of Prayer and Reparation on Saturday, August 24 from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and after Mass until 7:00 p.m.

With all the immorality and depravity that offends the purity and goodness of Jesus and Our Lady, and with wars and rumors of war throughout the world, we are called upon to offer prayers and sacrifices to our Lord and His Holy Mother. Please join us on August 24 as we pray for our nation and our world; for peace in our community; and for sins against the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

At the beginning of each hour, the praying of the Rosary or Divine Mercy Chaplet will be led from the ambo. There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer. We are hoping for many adorers each hour as we collectively offer reparation for sins.

The Continuing Ramifications of the Reformation in the United States
As Catholics living in a historically Protestant country, it can be challenging to find our way.

In this talk, Catholic history author Phillip Campbell unpacks how the Reformation has shaped the development of the United States and its institutions—and continues to do so to this day. The lecture will illustrate how American attitudes towards culture, religion, law, and political power all bear the unmistakable fingerprints of Reformation ideology, with the aim of helping Catholics to get outside of the assumptions bequeathed to us by our Protestant founding so we can better evaluate the ideas we encounter in American society.

Columbia Hall Remodel project

Our local Knights of Columbus Council has begun a much-needed remodel project on the Columbian Hall. Improvements will include new drywall & paint, new door trim, all new electrical outlets and switches, new USB charging ports, new commercial vinyl plank flooring, and new WIFI/internet access.

This will be a major undertaking in both time and money. The hall will be closed for rentals beginning August 6th for about 4-5 weeks and will cost $25,000-$30,000.

The decision was made to remodel the hall because of input from our community. There is a growing need for a gathering space here in Saint Johns for weddings, open houses, funerals, parties, and local events. Many people mentioned halls in our community are outdated and are not suitable for today's standards. The goal is to modernize the hall as well as to continue to make the Council relevant to the Parish and community.

We are seeking donations to help offset construction costs. If you are willing to help, please give Pete Motz a call at 989-224-7400 or by email: motzpete@yahoo.com
