Going Against the Flow

I have a T-shirt that has a picture of one brightly-colored fish heading upstream while other fish, paler in color, are swimming downstream. It is one of many shirts and sweatshirts promoting the ongoing TV series "The Chosen." It can represent Jesus specifically going against the cultural norm of his time, or more generally, Christians of today battling against our secular culture that has no use for religion. But for the purpose of this column, let's consider Catholics versus Protestants. Now I'm not anti-ecumenical -- my wife and I are part of the Thanksgiving celebration and dinner team working with members from other St. Johns' churches, in the spirit of Jesus. Let's use the T-shirt to talk numbers. (Don't worry math-haters, I'm talking easy math here.)

Most of us, over the years, have heard that the United States has almost 70 million baptized Catholics. Numbers vary slightly by survey, but Protestants make up more than double that in our country. In percentages, Protestants make up about 42 percent of our population and Catholics account for 20 percent. (In Michigan, the difference is even greater, 51 percent to 18 percent.) These numbers may surprise some, but if we look back on the history of our country it's no shock. And that's my point, being Catholic means being in the minority in the U.S. since the first Catholic colony of Maryland was established as a safe haven for Catholics in 1634.

The bottom line is that since Catholics started showing up in volume to the shores of the U.S. we have been a minority religion. That means when the Catholic colony of Maryland was established in 1634, it had been more than 100 years since the Protestant Reformation (Revolution) began in 1517. Thus we have all grown up to live as Catholics in a society that was formed by Protestant beliefs.

To help us understand the ramifications of living in a country that has been, and currently remains, a Protestant nation, Catholic history teacher and author Phillip Campbell will be making a return visit to St. Joe's. Campbell's talk will show us how so much of American culture, in his words, "bears the unmistakable fingerprints of Reformation ideology." His presentation last Spring drew a good crowd that nearly filled the church basement, so we have decided to move this upcoming talk to the Columbian Hall for more seating and better handicap access.

Adults and high-schoolers are welcome. We purposely chose a Saturday evening in the hopes that those young married adults with children might find it easier to get a babysitter to attend an adult faith learning event. Snacks will be available at 6:00 p.m. and Campbell's talk will begin at 6:30 on Saturday, October 5th. Mark your calendars.

NOTE: Thanks go to Diocesan Worship Director Jeremy Priest and Diocesan Family Life Director Richard Budd for attending all of last week's Sunday Masses to let us know about the excellent bible study series from the Catholic Biblical School. I have taken the program and highly recommend it. The next class starts next month at Most Holy Trinity in Fowler. CBSM pamphlets are available in the gathering space.

CLEAN COMEDY IMPROV SHOW

Hosted by the St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary

Doors open at 6:00 p.m.

Knights of Columbus Columbia Hall

1100 Old US 27, St. Johns

The show will begin at 7:00 p.m.

The Continuing Ramifications of the Reformation in the United States
As Catholics living in a historically Protestant country, it can be challenging to find our way.

In this talk, Catholic history author Phillip Campbell unpacks how the Reformation has shaped the development of the United States and its institutions—and continues to do so this day. The lecture will illustrate how American attitudes towards culture, religion, law, and political power all bear the unmistakable fingerprints of Reformation ideology, with the aim of helping Catholics to get outside of the assumptions bequeathed to us by our Protestant founding so we can better evaluate the ideas we encounter in American society.

Holy Hours of Adoration and Reparation
Saturday, August 24, 2024
2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and after Mass until 7:00 p.m.

The month of August is traditionally dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. In honor of this devotion, St. Joseph Parish is hosting Holy Hours of Prayer and Reparation on Saturday, August 24 from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and after Mass until 7:00 p.m.

With all the immorality and depravity that offends the purity and goodness of Jesus and Our Lady, and with wars and rumors of war throughout the world, we are called upon to offer prayers and sacrifices to our Lord and His Holy Mother. Please join us on August 24 as we pray for our nation and our world; for peace in our community; and for sins against the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

At the beginning of each hour, the praying of the Rosary or Divine Mercy Chaplet will be led from the ambo. There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer. We are hoping for many adorers each hour as we collectively offer reparation for sins.

Columbia Hall Remodel project

Our local Knights of Columbus Council has begun a much-needed remodel project on the Columbian Hall. Improvements will include new drywall & paint, new door trim, all new electrical outlets and switches, new USB charging ports, new commercial vinyl plank flooring, and new WIFI/internet access.

This will be a major undertaking in both time and money. The hall will be closed for rentals beginning August 6th for about 4-5 weeks and will cost $25,000-$30,000.

The decision was made to remodel the hall because of input from our community. There is a growing need for a gathering space here in Saint Johns for weddings, open houses, funerals, parties, and local events. Many people mentioned halls in our community are outdated and are not suitable for today's standards. The goal is to modernize the hall as well as to continue to make the Council relevant to the Parish and community.

We are seeking donations to help offset construction costs. If you are willing to help, please give Pete Motz a call at 989-224-7400 or by email: motzpete@yahoo.com

Thank you,
Mike Huhn
