(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

“Halo, and Good Morning My Children”

As we get older and life settles down a bit for us, we sometimes make small discoveries that make us smile. Such has been the case for me throughout September. I have noticed something at 8:30 Masses during the week of how the sun makes its way up over our school and illuminates the small stained glass windows that surround the sanctuary. Most significantly the window that features the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The sun's rays slowly start poking their way through Jesus' Sacred Heart halo as the window becomes brighter and brighter. It's almost as if Jesus is saying to us "Halo, and Good Morning, My Children," as we wipe the spiritual sands from our soul's eyes. In those moments just before and early into the 8:30 Mass, I get the feeling that the sun's rays are gradually being replaced by the "Son's Rays."

At the same time, as the Sacred Heart of Jesus window becomes engulfed in light, he introduces us to his earthly family. The window to the right (south) of the Sacred Heart features the Holy Family -- St. Joseph, the Blessed Mother and Jesus, of course, as a baby. In the New Testament, God reveals Jesus to us as the Savior. In a matter of well-aligned windows, he also reveals Jesus as true God and true man, a member of an earthly family to whom we can all relate.

As the sunlight beams through this second window and the Holy Family, it also starts another revelation, that of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in window number three. So together we have God presenting his Son through his Sacred Heart, then he takes us back to Jesus' earthly beginnings and the woman he chose not only to be the earthly mother of Jesus, but the Blessed Mother of us all. Her Immaculate Heart projects the purity of Mary and the purity of her love for all.

Standing, of course, in the middle is St. Joseph -- Jesus and the Sacred Heart on one side and Mary and her Immaculate Heart on the other. St. Joseph stands there, as quiet as ever, knowing his role as protector and comforter -- strong, obedient and faithful. A great role model is he. He accepted God's plan for him in raising the child Jesus and loving his wife Mary.

The sun doesn't always shine through those windows, but the light of Christ is available for each of us at all times. It's up to us to seek the light as part of God's universal plan.

Mission Appeal for the Diocese of Kottapuram

Rev. Bosco Padamattummal will be speaking about the works and the needs of the Diocese of Kottapuram.

Situated in Kerala in the southwest region of India as it juts into the Arabian Sea, the Diocese of Kottapuram is geographically full of islands and villages with about 25,000 Catholic families out of a population of 100,000 families – Christians, Muslims and Hindus. With an economy based on fishing, and with monsoons and other fluctuations of weather, the people experience great hardships. In love and charity the Diocese offers many programs to assist, support and empower children, women, fishermen, young, old, Catholic, and non-Catholic. Father asks, “On behalf of my Bishop Ambrose Puthenveetil I request your prayerful support and financial assistance to continue all the good works for the sick and suffering, irrespective of caste and creed, and to support the vocation to the priesthood.”

There will be second collection after communion at after all Masses this weekend. You can also drop off a donation at the parish office this week.

Your support of this mission appeal is deeply appreciated.

Adult Formation Team - update

Thank you to everyone who has expressed a desire to participate in the Adult Formation Team. If you are considering reaching out and have not yet, there is still room for a few more passionate individuals to help. In particular, we would really appreciate the input of at least one more young adult on the team. The team plans to meet for the first time in October, so please reach out to Amanda soon if you have any questions about the team or would like to be included. Her email is rcia.stjosephparish@gmail.com or at the parish office.

Thank you for your continued prayers for this ministry.

Rest in Peace

Our prayers and sympathies to the family and friends of

The Continuing Ramifications of the Reformation in the United States

As Catholics living in a historically Protestant country, it can be challenging to find our way. In this talk, Catholic history author Phillip Campbell unpacks how the Reformation has shaped the development of the United States and its institutions-and continues to do so to this day. The lecture will illustrate how American attitudes towards culture, religion, law, and political power all bear the unmistakable fingerprints of Reformation ideology, with the aim of helping Catholics to get outside of the assumptions bequeathed to us by our Protestant founding so we can better evaluate the ideas we encounter in American Society.

The fall campaign of 40 Days for Life begins on Wednesday, September 25th. 40 Days for Life is a peaceful and prayerful vigil outside of abortion clinics across the world.
