WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

In Search of the Golden Acorn

I never thought much about squirrels until the past year or so. Oh, every now and then I would marvel at their balance as they scurried across the tops of our fences or be amused when, at times, they would chase each other up and down our trees. But they would draw a little bit of my ire, when after sweeping my driveway of black walnuts, a nut would fall, then another and I would look up and see one of these furry creatures "tee-heeing" as he dropped another one right next to me. Old candy commercials used to say "Sometimes you feel like a nut, sometimes you don't." This would be a "sometimes you don't" moment.

Then, about a year ago, my wife and I were reading in the back yard when we heard a thump and turned to see that a squirrel had fallen about 25 feet and landed in the middle of the yard. It was stirring for a moment, first lifting its head and looking at us then slowly getting on its feet and meandering back to the tree -- a little bruised and perhaps a bit embarrassed that he who could walk on fence-lines just fell out of a tree. After that I started noticing the squirrels around our home a bit more.

Early one Spring morning, with the dew still fresh on my grass, I saw a squirrel on the far side of the yard digging for a buried nut and I saw two small black birds poking around for a gourmet breakfast of bugs and worms in the front part of the yard.

The squirrel dug a couple holes in his unsuccessful nut search when he noticed the birds and started moving toward them, a little bit at a time. This confused me because he looked like he was going to attack the birds and I thought "you silly squirrel, you eat nuts and acorns, not birds or worms or bugs." But the squirrel indeed leaped at the birds, who flew up a few feet then simultaneously nose-dived at the squirrel as he high-tailed it back across the yard and up the tree. In researching this column, I found out that squirrels are actually omnivores and will eat birds if hungry enough.

Its taken me 400 words to get around to noting how today's column title fits into all this. Well, a couple weeks ago, I came home to find a dead squirrel in the street near my driveway. It had not been run over. It may have fallen out of the tree. About two inches from the squirrel's mouth was an acorn. I thought about the squirrel Scrat from the Ice Age movies and his fruitless attempts for that great big tasty Golden Acorn. He always survived his adventures, because (duh) he's only a cartoon character.

We must look at the Golden Acorns we pursue (wealth, power, honor or pleasure) and consider whether those pursuits get in the way of our relationship with God. The squirrel laying in my street got his acorn at his ultimate cost. Our ultimate spiritual cost is much greater if we go too far out on the limb in our material pursuits. Our Christian goal is singular and focused - pursue Jesus.

St Monica Auxiliary monthly meeting (date change!) and English Tea Party

St. Monica Ladies Auxiliary will meet Monday, October 21st 6:30 p.m. at the Columbian Hall. There will be a short business meeting to make plans for future events followed by an English Tea Party with all the fixings--tea in fancy pots and tea cups with multiply tea snacks. So put on your favorite fascinator, hatinator or fancy hat and join in the fun night. All ladies of the parish are invited to attend this event.

The Auxiliary also sends out a huge thank you to all who came to enjoy the clean comedy of the Free Shrugs Improv Group. It was full of fun and hugely successful.

STEWARDSHIP

For the weekend of September 30, 2024

|---|-------------------|
| Adults (287 gifts Including online giving): | $16,461.48 |
| Loose Cash: | $787.11 |

Other Gifts Received

|---------------------------|----------------|
| Education Trust Fund: | $41.00 |
| Building Fund: | $105.00 |
| Tuition Scholarship Fund: | $37.00 |

Our weekly average since July 1, 2024 is $18,193.59. If we continue to keep this average, we will not meet our budgeted goal.

Soon, Bishop Boyea will invite everyone to be a part of the historic Stewardship for Saints and Scholars campaign. The campaign is a wonderful opportunity to address the needs of our schools and faith formation programs and our parishes. Bishop Boyea's invitation will request each family to make a meaningful gift with a suggested amount.

The request amounts for families to consider are based, in part, on support to our parish, past support to diocesan causes, a review by the campaign team and other information including whether you took part in the planning study. The diocese certainly does not know anyone's financial situation, but Bishop Boyea's approach will be to ask every family to prayerfully consider and then make a meaningful and sacrificial gift.

There are many ways of giving which can accommodate your current circumstances. The campaign offers flexible arrangements for when to pay and how to pay. Each family is asked to pray about what an appropriate sacrifice would be to provide meaningful support to the campaign and then complete a pledge card.

Our parish will have a team of volunteers who are helping with the campaign. They will be available to provide information, answer questions, and assist you in completing your pledge card.

Your charitable gift will positively impact the saints and scholars of today and the future generations of Catholics in Michigan and beyond!
