WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

(and whatever else is on Deacon Eric's mind)

I Asked God...

Those of us who spend a little time on social media often come across lists of this or that, the best of, the worst of or a list of suggestions to better our lives. I recently came across such a list that I figured would stimulate thoughts about how we pray to God, and I can think of no better time of year to share it than the first Sunday of Advent. It's not about repentance or the birth of Jesus it's about his love for us.

I probably can't get all eight of the sayings in within the confine of this column, but there will certainly be enough to present its purpose. Most importantly, they should help us see how God works with us in life. The first one is: "I asked God to take away my habit. God said, "No. It is not for me to take it away, but for you to give it up." One of the problems many of us face in prayer is to always be asking for the Lord to do something for us or give something to us. Sometimes the Lord says I've given you the ability to give this up on your own.

Next consider this: "I asked God to give me patience, but God said, "No. Patience is a by-product of tribulations. It isn't granted, it is learned." This is a tough one to handle because so many of us have sought God's help with patience, but since it is something we can learn there is going to be some trial and error. Once we master patience, however, the reward is great.

This next one is quite relatable: "I asked God to spare me pain, but God said, "No. Suffering draws you apart from worldly cares, and brings you closer to me." This is very difficult, especially when we are praying for relief of another's pain. And God's answer that we need to endure is unacceptable to many of us much of the time, but it's important for us to learn to offer up our suffering.

Life isn't supposed to be easy, especially a Christian life, which is made clear by the following statement: "I asked God for all things that I might enjoy life, but God said, "No. I will give you life so you may enjoy all things." When Adam and Eve ushered sin into the world, the easy life disappeared. But that shouldn't keep us from enjoying life. Not all enjoyment is tied to money, just think of all we put on our lists last week when we pondered all for which we are thankful.

The final idiom I'm presenting wraps the whole bundle up: "I asked God to help me love others as He has loved me. God said, "Ah, now you have the idea."

I have nothing to add, except to wish everyone a blessed Advent and Christmas.

(List of sayings from a Facebook post from Catholic radio host Gus Lloyd.)

Heavenly Father, in Your goodness You have given us this time to prepare ourselves for the coming of the greatest gift, Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, more fully into our lives. Please help us to make a gift of ourselves to those in our family and community, through our time, our talents, and our prayers. We start by praying for those whose hands make up our little wreath, (mention names here), for their intentions, and for our entire St. Joseph Parish family. May we all better know the great peace, hope, love, and joy that comes only from You, as we grow closer to You throughout the seasons of Advent and Christmas. We ask all this through the power of the Holy Spirit, truly guiding the Church and its people today, and through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Amen.

Our campaign thermometer is on the rise! Be sure to keep an eye on our progress as we continue to push those lines higher and higher. We have currently raised $645,243.00. As you may remember, our target at St. Joseph Church is $1,260,00.00. Thank you to everyone who has participated and to those who are praying about how they may make a difference.

During the last several weeks we have made a concerted effort to educate every parishioner about the campaign. We want to continue answering any questions you might have and ask for your participation. We need everyone's help in order to reach our target.

Continue to say the campaign prayer for St. Joseph's success and for your hard-working campaign volunteers who are giving of their time and hearts.

Campaign prayer

Lord, everything we have is a gift from you. You call us to receive your gifts with thanks to develop these gifts fully, and to share them generously.

Through the Stewardship for Saints and Scholars campaign help every young person in the Diocese of Lansing see your truth, beauty, and goodness; help families to raise their children in the Faith; and help parishes make a truly Catholic education available to all.

May the work of this campaign bear abundant fruit in the Saints and Scholars you are raising up for the future.

We ask these blessing through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GIVING TREE

Ornaments are in the baskets located at the new gathering space in the church. Each ornament has an item that you can provide for someone in need. Your responsibility is to bring the wrapped gift, marked with the name & number found on the ornament, and return the gift in the gathering space. Please remember that the gift you provide is often the only gift that the person receives.

In past years over 200 individuals from Hazel Findlay, Safe Center, Eureka House, and Reach the Forgotten Ministries have benefited from the generosity of St. Joseph parishioners.

Please return monetary gifts to the parish office.

St. Joseph School 100 Anniversary

When we have space in our bulletin, we're excited to share our "Throwback Thursday" posts from Facebook. We understand that not everyone has a Facebook account, and we don't want you to miss out on the joy and nostalgia these memories bring.

This post appeared on Facebook November 21, 2024

Today, we throw it back to November 1998. The students from the classroom of Linda Kurncz present their annual Thanksgiving Pageant for parents and friends. The actors gathered together to recreate the story of the first Thanksgiving and explain the meaning of the holiday. As we approach Thanksgiving next week, we praise and thank God for 100 years of His blessings upon our school.
