Rites of Entrance & Welcoming

On Sunday, February 2 at the 12:00 noon Mass, the parish will celebrate the Rite of Entrance into the Order of Catechumens (for those who are unbaptized), and the Rite of Welcoming of the Candidates (for those baptized in a different Christian denomination). In celebrating these rites, those who have been inquiring about Catholicism will officially and publicly declare their intention to enter into a formal relationship with the Catholic Church, learning its ways and participating in its lifestyle. While the two rites share similarities, there are also important differences. For example, the unbaptized will begin the rite outside of the church, and be brought inside by Fr. Mike, and by extension, all of us. Meanwhile, those who are already baptized begin inside the body of the church, as we recognize them as our brothers and sisters in Christ. These rites mark the persons as members of the Catholic Church. However, they will not complete their initiation into full communion until they have received the three sacraments of initiation: baptism, confirmation, and the Eucharist.

All of the Catholic faithful have an important role to play in these rites, which is why we request the presence of as many parishioners as possible. During the rites, Fr. Mike will ask parishioners, "Are you ready to journey with these inquirers, helping them to know and follow Christ?" This question requires an answer, but first, you should carefully consider the words: how will you journey with them, and how can you help them to know and follow Christ? The answers to these questions will vary, but it is clear that the Church recognizes the crucial role of each person in doing their part to help new faithful on their faith journeys. Please pray for Chris, Jesse, Lindsey, Laureen, Randy, and all those considering becoming Catholic.

Birthday Wishes All Around

"It is the wish of the writer of this record," he said, "that whoever reads it may be able to judge that there was earnest piety in the hearts of those who gave generously for the building, and may he enjoy in his time, blessings of religious charity and goodness that this school taught and influenced."

I remember these words like it was yesterday, perhaps because it was just last September I wrote them to mark the beginning of the school year at St. Joe's. The quote, you may remember, is from Fr. Vincent Hankerd as he spoke on the official first day of classes at the new St. Joseph School in 1924.

As many of you know, the school has been quietly celebrating its 100th birthday already, but today is the official birthday party day led by a visit from Bishop Boyea. I don't know how many students have attended the school (my research assistant, LOL, failed to gather that info) over the past century, but I do know that there are families with third generation students attending this year. What a wonderful testament to the people and the pastors of St. Joseph Parish over a period of 100 years. Join in the celebration today (Sunday) at the school.

If you're an alum, you can walk through the school and reminisce a bit. If you're not an alum, stop in anyway, have some cake and see what Principal Chris Wells and his talented staff are doing this 2024-25 school year. May we all pray that this jewel of our community continue educating our children for decades to come. SOAR ON COMETS!

But that's not the only birthday of note this month. Last weekend, I was down in the Detroit area for my sister's 80th birthday and several nephews and nieces that we haven't seen in years were in attendance. It was a wonderful day that was supposed to be capped with a Detroit Lions victory, but they apparently didn't get the memo. We had to leave early because I was preaching Sunday morning, but when I got a text the next day from my niece that said "great birthday parties, yucky football," I was reminded of what is important in my life. I responded to the text with "games come and go, families are forever." I have a wonderful large family and so does my wife. We are blessed and it's moments like this when we are reminded of such. Not everyone is so blessed.

And I would be neglectful if I didn't publicly give a birthday shout-out to my wife, who shares the same birthday as my sister. The party organizers did grant her a share in the celebration and prepared a cake for her. It was not a milestone birthday for Mary Beth, but it does mean for the next two months, until my birthday, I will be dating an older woman.

Sick or homebound?

Please keep in touch! Let us know your temporary address or your situation/plans. Would you like to receive homebound Communion after surgery? Are you hospitalized? We're here for you and want to minister to your needs, offer prayers, like to know how you're doing, etc. Just call the office with an update, and we'll connect to our Homebound Communion Team and/or add you to our prayer intentions, send mail to a different address., etc.

American Red Cross Blood Drive

February 3 2025

10:45 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Columbian Hall

1108 N Business 127, St. Johns

For the past 25 years, the Knights of Columbus have been hosting a blood drive for the American Red Cross. During these 25 years, about 1,580 gallons of blood has been collected to be used for life saving measures, such as during surgeries or life saving transfusions. The blood drives are held the first Monday of February, April, June, August, October and December. The next drive will be held February 3rd from 10:45 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Prayerfully consider becoming a donor. You may contact the American Red cross at redcrossblood.org for more information or to make an appointment to donate.

Unscheduled walk-in donors are also welcome.
