The Divine Mercy Chaplet

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is an intercessory prayer that asks the Lord to send His mercy upon us and upon everyone living in the world. It is prayed using the rosary and takes ten minutes to pray. The chaplet is traditionally said during the hour of mercy, the 3:00 pm hour. According to the Diary of St. Faustina, Jesus promised that all who recite this chaplet at the hour of death or in the presence of the dying will receive great mercy. The Vatican has approved Jesus' promises to St. Faustina regarding the Chaplet, Divine Mercy Sunday & the Divine Mercy picture. You may want to research the many promises of mercy that Jesus made to St. Faustina. The chaplet is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist so it is especially appropriate to pray it after receiving the Eucharist at Mass. Please join the Path of Divine Hope Grief Ministry after the last Saturday Mass each month when the Divine Mercy Chaplet is said for the parishioners who died during the month. This month it will be prayed after mass on February 22.

WE ARE ALL EVANGELIZERS

Deacon Eric's mind)

Aging - A Matter of Perspective

Though I am not usually drawn to quotes that lean toward negativity, especially as content for a column, today I just can't shake the quote of the day on my flip calendar from the great artist Michelangelo:

"I'm old, and death has stolen from me youthful thoughts. Those who don't know what it is to grow old should simply have patience until old age comes, because they can't know what it's like ahead of time."

What struck me is that such a wonderful talent, whose works transcend time, would have such a sad, negative thought. The Lord granted him 90 years on this earth and he used his gifts to the fullest as long as he could, but perhaps because he was such a perfectionist he had trouble dealing with a declining ability to transfer his thoughts to his hands in his painting or sculpturing.

I'm not sure exactly what Michelangelo is referencing when he says "death has stolen from me youthful thoughts." It could mean he had trouble remembering the days or the people of his own youth. Or it could mean, he couldn't think like or relate to the youth of his later years. That makes me recall a song from my younger years by Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young called "Teach Your Children" in which one verse goes like this: "And you, of tender years, can't know the fears your elders grew by, help them with your youth, they seek the truth before they can die."

As we age, attitude becomes very important. It's nice to think that 50 is the new 40 or 70 is the new 60 and such. It helps us in our daily lives to be optimistic. Even if there are events or people in our lives that are troubling, we as Catholics are not "seeking the truth" before we die as the song says. That's because we know the Truth in Jesus Christ. We should, however, be seeking a closer relationship to Jesus, regardless of age.

I have to admit, I fall into the "old" category and it's my guess my readership's ages skew 60+. But I try to write in a manner that does not belie age, hoping my words are read and appreciated by any adult. For example, this column's topic is about aging and the need to accept declining abilities, both physical and mental. But I am also encouraging hope and optimism among my peers and elders. I also hope that younger readers can work on the patience Michelangelo notes in today's quote --especially when dealing with aging parents.

I have heard often in my ministry to the home-bound from parishioners who ask "why hasn't God taken me home?" I tell them that God needs them to pray, for their family, for the Church, for priests, deacons, our country and so on. We can turn the TV news on and have a new list of people and institutions to pray for before we get to the weathercast. We're older, but we still have a purpose.

FORGIVEN Group Study Coming this Lent!

Sin, guilt, failure, disappointment...these are all an unpleasant but universal reality of the human experience. We all have to deal with them, but we can't do it alone. The remedy is immediately available and miraculously effective---the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession isn't a rule, a formality, or an old-fashioned ritual. It's an intimate and life-changing experience of God's mercy. Join us for this three-week study that will look at the revelation of God's mercy in scripture, make an examination of the Rite itself, and allow us to grow a more profound appreciation for this great sacrament in which we experience his indescribable love.

Thursdays: March 6, March 13, and March 20 at 6:30 p.m. in the parish basement.

Your St. Joseph Church adult choir is now rehearsing music for the Lenten season. Do you enjoy singing? Do you enjoy hearing beautiful choral music? Do you love to sing praises to our God? If you do, we would love to have you join us. Church choir rehearses every Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. in the church choir loft.

If you have any questions, please contact Jeff Richards at musicdirector.stjosephchurch@gmail.com

Why is it so important to register in a parish?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times young adults who have moved away for years or are still living with their parents think they are still signed up under their parent's registration. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of your parish.

We encourage and invite all adult members of our faith community (18 years or older) to register. Registration shows you belong. Being a registered parishioner makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptisms, weddings, and when asked to be a Godparent for Baptism or sponsor for Confirmation. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

To register in our parish please stop by the parish office for a registration form. You can also register through our website stjoecatholic.com under "forms". If you're not sure you are registered, please call the parish office.

Parents with one or more students attending Lansing Catholic High School may apply for a parish subsidy grant from St. Joseph Church to help with tuition costs. There are basic requirements to apply and forms are available through the parish office or on our website: stjoecatholic.com/forms/

Application deadline is March 31, 2025 for the 2025-26 school year.
